

AT THE BANK.—A country fellow entered one of the New York banks, and, walking up to the counter, exclaimed, "Here I am. I want you to take a fair look at me!" Without a word further he strode out. The next day the same customer appeared, uttered the same words, and again disappeared. The third day, at the same time, he walked in, and, advancing to the teller's desk, threw down a draft payable three days after sight. "Now," said he, "you've seen me three times. I want the money."
